"Taking cheeky inspiration from women's magazine culture, this hilarious Oz feature comedy flies on a ticket of enthused charm, homespun wit and the brilliant performance of Sara Browne in the 'Plain-Jane' central role, a character of rare identification for middle-class chicks everywhere. Less pretentious than Muriel's Wedding or as condescending as The Castle, this remarkably self-funded film has easily as much appeal."

Margaret and David (The Movie Show)

'A perceptive and talented filmmaker makes a remarkable debut.'
