Personal Profile:

As a director I have made ten short drama films as well as working in television and music promos.

I'm also a lighting cameraman by trade so having the opportunity to do both roles, has presented me with a wonderful crossover of disciplines and knowledge, with one informing the other when needs be.

Three of my short dramas have been broadcast, as well as having produced and directed my own single entertainment programme on ITV for their Christmas schedule. I have also produced and directed a music promo for MTV.

Most recently I have been nominated for best director for my digital sci-fi series "Horizon" at the Royal Television Society WOE awards 2016. My first book "Shooting Better Movies: The Student Film-makers Guide" is out now by MWP publishers.

Special Experience of Filming:

- Multi-camera shoots
